Walmart and Dollar Tree for incidentals -tape, brushes, wax paper, rubbing alcohol etc., Hobby Lobby + Michaels - brushes, foam core, pastel carrier, easels. At Artisans (ABQ or Santa Fe: can buy individual sheets of paper, limited pastels, brushes

PAPERS:

1A SANDED PAPER– SENNELIER'S La Carte Pastel, UARTS (400 grit, ivory or charcoal), Art Spectrum or Pastel Premiere

Suggest a smaller size– 8 x 10, 9 x 12 or purchase one 19 x 26 and cut down. Have a selection of colors a+ white
2A MARKER / DRAWING PAPER- 9" x 12" pad (@ Dollar Tree for $1.25) This is used to practice varied stroking techniques and to create a 'trap' that's taped onto board to catch pastel dust

PASTELS:

Soft pastels come in 3 grades - soft, medium-hard and firm. Firm is for block-in and building-up the composition and the soft adds feathery accents and vibrant colors. It gets expensive to buy sets and many of the colors one does not use, so consider buying individual sticks or small sets. If this is your first investment, considering buying - Mungyo -32 half sticks of soft pastels -approx. $8 at Amazon or Jerrysartarama.com
